Director of Music – Thomas's Clapham

January 2020/April 2020

An exceptional Director of Music is required from January 2020/April 2020 to lead Music throughout one of the most outstanding and prestigious 13+ prep schools in the country. The successful candidate will be an inspirational and creative teacher and musician, with experience of working in a senior or preparatory school, who can provide an inclusive and innovative learning environment, consistently offering a wide range of opportunities and celebrating every child's effort and achievement. This is an excellent opportunity for an ambitious Music specialist with imagination and passion to make Thomas's Clapham Music Department the best there is in the prep school world.
